Charity Share Donation

About ShareGift:

ShareGift specialises in helping shareholders to dispose of small shareholdings where the value of the shares may make it uneconomic to sell them. ShareGift works by collecting together small lots of shares until there are enough to sell. The ultimate proceeds from selling shares create a pool of funds from which ShareGift makes donations to a wide range of UK registered charities guided by donor suggestion.

How to donate unwanted shares:

Simply complete the ShareGift transfer form overleaf and return it, together with your share certificate(s), to the Company's Registrars, Equiniti Limited, Aspect House, Spencer Road, Lancing, West Sussex, BN99 6DA.

If your share certificate(s) are lost or destroyed, you can still use the service; simply complete the Lost Certificate box at the bottom of the form.

If a sole shareholder has died, please send a sealed copy of the grant of probate. If a joint shareholder has died, please send a certified copy of the death certificate. If the company's registrar has already seen these documents, there is no need to send them again.

The shares will then be transferred into the name of The Orr Mackintosh Foundation (working name ShareGift) a registered charity which was created to realise as much value as possible by selling such shares and passing the proceeds to a wide range of UK charities.

Beneficiary charities:

ShareGift has distributed millions of pounds to hundreds of different UK charities so far. Share donors are welcome to suggest charities for consideration by contacting us with details of your share donation and the charity you would like to suggest. Further information on our donation policy can be found at www.ShareGift.org

Tax Information:

Donating shares to charity in this way gives rise to neither a gain nor a loss for Capital Gains Tax purposes. It is also possible to claim income tax relief on the value of your donation. You may wish to keep a dated copy of your signed transfer form to assist you with any tax reclaim.

Information on giving shares to charity and further tax information are available from HM Revenue and Customs, 0845 3020203, or on their website: <http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/individuals/giving/assets.htm> .

Further information:

If you need any help or for further information, you can contact ShareGift by emailing help@sharegift.org or by telephone on 020 7930 3737. ShareGift can also accept shares in other companies and can help with donations of all sizes. Please contact ShareGift for a separate transfer form if you have other shares which you wish to donate.
