Prudential plc - First Interim Dividend

Prudential plc ("Prudential") has today announced its 2025 first interim dividend of 7.71 US cents per ordinary share (the "Dividend").

Shareholders holding shares on the UK or Hong Kong share registers will receive their dividend payments in either pounds sterling or Hong Kong dollars respectively, unless they elect to receive dividend payments in US dollars. Elections for US dollar payments must be made through the relevant UK or Hong Kong share registrar on or before 25 September 2025. Further information is available at <https://www.prudentialplc.com/en/investors/shareholder-information/dividend/dividend-currency-election>. The corresponding amount per share in pounds sterling and Hong Kong dollars is expected to be announced on or around 2 October 2025. The US dollar to pound sterling and to Hong Kong dollar conversion rates will be determined by the actual rates achieved by Prudential buying those currencies.

Holders of American Depositary Receipts ("ADRs") will receive their dividend payments in US dollars through Citibank N.A., the ADR Depositary. Shareholders holding an interest in Prudential shares through The Central Depository (Pte) Limited ("CDP") in Singapore ("Singapore Shareholders") will receive their dividend payments in Singapore dollars at the prevailing market exchange rate.

All shares bought back by Prudential awaiting cancellation on the Record Date (as defined below) are not eligible for the 2025 first interim dividend.

A scrip dividend alternative will be offered in respect of the 2025 first interim dividend in accordance with the Evergreen Scrip Dividend Scheme Terms and Conditions available on Prudential's website at <https://www.prudentialplc.com/en/investors/shareholder-information/dividend/scrip-dividend>. The scrip dividend alternative will involve the issuance of relevant new ordinary shares on the Hong Kong line only. Prudential will make available a share dealing facility (the "Dealing Facility") to enable shareholders who are not able to hold their shares on the Hong Kong line to participate in the scrip dividend alternative.

Unless a shareholder has an existing scrip dividend mandate in place, elections for the scrip dividend alternative must be received by the deadlines specified in the timetable below. In particular, shareholders holding shares through CREST or an intermediary / CCASS, or Singapore Shareholders who cannot apply for a permanent election, will need to complete a scrip dividend election by the relevant deadline specified below, as their past elections cannot be captured.

Prudential will apply to the Financial Conduct Authority, the Listing Committee of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange ("HKEX") and to Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited ("SGX") for the new shares to be listed, and to the HKEX, London Stock Exchange ("LSE") and SGX for the shares to be admitted to trading on the HKEX, LSE and SGX.

Shareholders on the UK register have the option of participating in the Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRIP) instead of the scrip dividend alternative, which enables shareholders to invest their cash dividend directly in the purchase of Prudential's shares in the market. Further information on the DRIP is available at <https://www.prudentialplc.com/en/investors/shareholder-information/dividend/dividend-reinvestment-plan>.

- (4) Distribution of sale proceeds to shareholders (holding their shares on the UK share register) participating in the scrip dividend alternative via the Dealing Facility will be made within 14 Hong Kong trading days of the completion of the sale of the relevant shares.

Elections for shares held on the UK share register via CREST

On 9 September 2025, Prudential's registrar, Computershare Investor Services PLC ("Computershare"), will distribute Electronic Election Entitlements ("EEEs") (Interim ISIN code GB00BTRC9G00) to all Prudential shareholders holding shares on the UK share register through CREST on the Record Date. To make an election via EEEs, shareholders holding through CREST will be required to transfer an appropriate number of entitlement shares into a CREST member account via an Unmatched Stock Event ("USE") transaction. There will be a separate account designated to each option, and these details will be made available in the CREST system.

Elections via CREST should be received by Computershare no later than 5.00pm on 25 September 2025. If the USE is not settled by such deadline, the dividend will be paid in cash in the default currency. Shareholders holding shares through CREST will need to ensure that their election is made to the appropriate CREST Member Account as detailed in the Corporate Action event that will be made available in the CREST system by Euroclear UK & International Limited ("Euroclear") against the Interim ISIN Code GB00BTRC9G00.

An election via CREST will not apply in respect of future dividends as Euroclear will centrally delete all existing dividend election instruction messages submitted on Prudential ordinary shares prior to the Record Date. Therefore, in order to avoid automatically receiving the cash dividend in its default currency, elections will need to be made via Dividend with Options ("DWO") for the 2025 first interim dividend and every future dividend.
